Agreement for the dissemination of master's theses via the website of the Libraries and Documentation Service of the Technical University of Catalonia

Master Thesis data

Title : _____

Author: _____

Advisor(s): _____

By accepting this agreement, I grant the Libraries and Documentation Service of the Technical University of Catalonia the power to:

1. Make electronically available the master's thesis of which I am author by including it on the website of the Libraries and Documentation Service of the Technical University of Catalonia or any other platform that may take its place.
2. Adapt the work, when technically necessary, in order to make it electronically available via the website.
3. Grant the dissemination of the work by the following Creative Commons license or similar:
Acknowledgement-NonCommercial-NoDerivativeWorks [derivative works are not allowed].

This agreement grants, in all cases, the power to reproduce, distribute, and disseminate the work by any person as long as authorship is acknowledged, and for non-commercial purposes only.

This agreement by no means signifies an exclusive assignment of author copyright to the work, nor does it prevent typical forms of commercialization.

This agreement is valid for a period of 5 years, which can be automatically extended for successive periods of the same length, except in the case in which the agreement is expressly repealed by the author of the work.

I hereby state that I am the legitimate owner of the copyright to the work here discussed, and have obtained the necessary permission to include in my master's thesis other works of which I am not the author (photographs, diagrams, etc.).
